You are making a sincere commitment to Animal Welfare League's staff and animals. The dogs and cats here are unwanted, neglected and some are even abused. They will start to depend on your kindness and look forward to your visits. Please keep this in mind while honoring your commitment to them. Thank you

Time Commitment: You must make a minimum 10 hour commitment to AWL. At least 2 hours of your time on the day/days you choose to volunteer.

Volunteers are an essential part of the Animal Welfare League. Not only to the thousands of animals we take in each year, but volunteers are very important to the staff and community as well. Your investment of time and talents are vital to our success. Without the help of volunteers many of our programs and goals could not be accomplished.
